Benazir Bhutto - Bilawal Bhutto: Glimpses from a Secret Sex Kingdom

It's the tale of a woman who had crossed all the boundaries:

Benazir Bhutto, former Prime Minister of Pakistan lived a secret libertine sex life…

The first book on Benazir's sex life was "Indecent Correspondence: Secret Sex Life of Benazir Bhutto". It was more like a document composed of written confessions by some close friends of Benazir who participated in sexual escapades along with her…

This new book about Benazir & Bilawal Bhutto describes some of the wildest sexual acts Benazir was known for in her intimate circles. The story is written in the style of a film's scenario, based on the notes by a class-fellow of Bilawal Bhutto who was witness to everything in Dubai and London.

This book unfolds explicit descriptions of Benazir-in-action, and how she tricked Bilawal's class-fellow into her games of incest - in which she would have sex even with her own son, Bilawal… Benazir was known to be enthralled by the erotic traditions of ancient royal dynasties. She was the modern-day example of Queen Agrippina (the mother of Nero) and Empress Theodora from the Roman Empire. Benazir Bhutto had created a secret sex kingdom around her - where she was the queen of sex and every selected man and woman served her sexual desires…

THE CURIOSITY RISES ABOUT BENAZIR'S SECRET STORY

Salman Pasha, an investigative reporter is driving through the streets in Karachi…

He enters Bath Island area in Clifton and parks his car in the compound of a bungalow, which appears to be located in a slightly remote corner. The stones-made bungalow has an ancient look.
It is the private office of a media tycoon, Taher Changezi.
He is Salman's guru, his mentor. Changezi uses this place rarely, only for some exceptional conference with a select few.
Today a very special meeting is scheduled here.

Salman and four other people, three men and one woman arrive, one by one.

The first man walks in…
He is Ghazenfer Ibrahim, a behind-the-scene financier of many controversial films in India and Pakistan. Besides, he owns several other businesses…

Saeed Chughtai joins. He is a prominent political figure.

The third one is Rustam Shafi, a well-known builder with high reputation…

A woman walks in… She is Yasmeen Khan, the voice for women's rights, runs an NGO, "Women United".

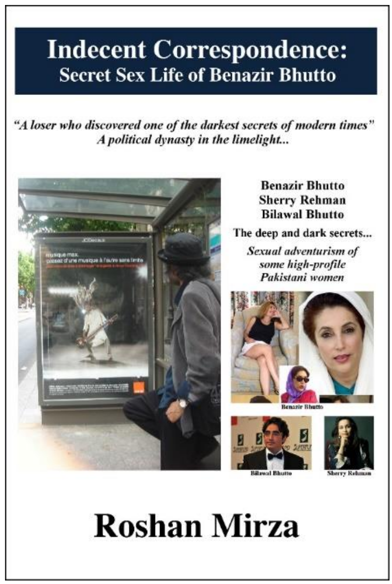

Salman enters the lounge, takes a look around, "So here are our key players, the movers and shakers…"

The conference begins…
On the display screen, the cover pages of two books are displayed:

- My Sex Life in Paris by Saira Mir and
- Indecent Correspondence: Secret Sex Life of Benazir Bhutto by Roshan Mirza

Changezi points out towards the display screen:

CHANGEZI

"Salman, you see here two books. These are two sex stories. One is about a swinger couple in Paris who are originally from Pakistan. The other one is about this most prominent lady and her secret sex life. It's so shocking. You will have to move deep, down, inside of this story, find out more evidences, get some video clips. It's the story of the century.
The digital versions of both books have been forwarded to all of you."

SALMAN
"What is the connection between these two books?"

CHANGEZI
"They're closely connected…
The first book, 'My Sex Life in Paris' is written by Saira Mir.
She tells the story of her sex life as a swinger couple in Paris.
Her book has led to the discovery of the secret sex world of Benazir.
This swinger couple in Paris, Saira Mir and Rufi were having a libertine sex life, participating in private sex parties and exclusive swingers' clubs where partners were openly exchanged.
Actually, they're the ones who discovered Benazir's secret sex life.
Story of Saira Mir's sex life in Paris was read by some close friends of Benazir who started correspondence with Saira and revealed everything about Benazir's wild sex life…
Then it was all revealed in this other book written by Roshan Mirza.
You see this man with the black hat, on the cover of the book…
He is Roshan Mirza. Probably, Rufi is Roshan Mirza who broke into the secret sex kingdom of our queen."

SALMAN
"But you cannot see his face in the picture."

CHANGEZI
"You can't see the face, right. Then go and see the man, face to face.
Find out all other faces, discover the larger picture."

Salman takes a look at one of the men sitting beside Changezi.
He is Ghazenfar Ibrahim. Salman seems to know him.

SALMAN (sarcastically)
"Ah, the man of the movies. So you're planning a movie on this?"

GHAZENFAR IBRAHIM
"It's too early for you to make a conclusion."

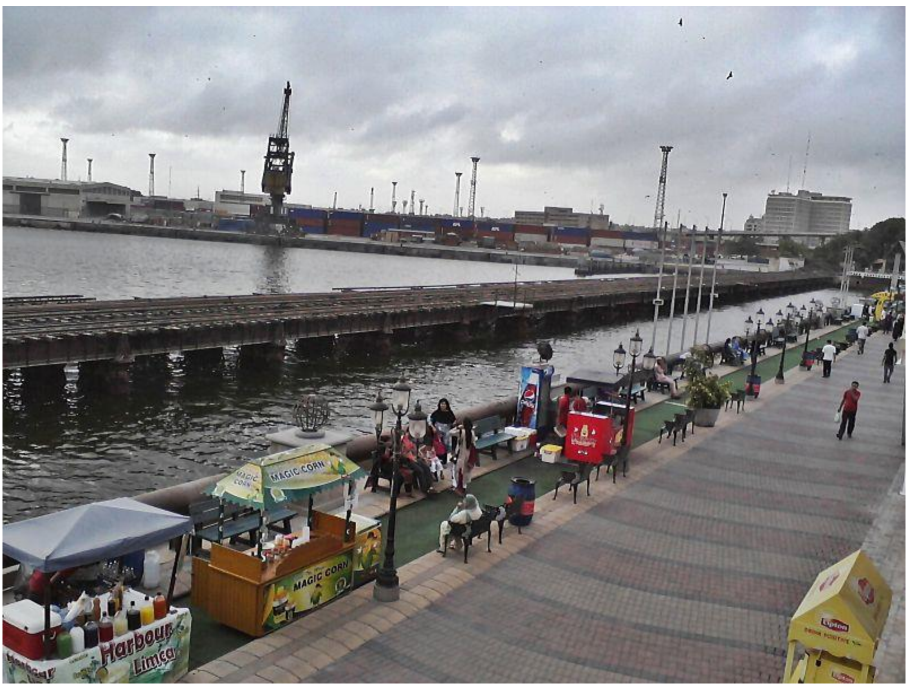

SALMAN

"No, I must have a conclusion now, here in this meeting!
If a film is made, I will be a part of that project."

CHANGEZI

"Salman, okay, fine. You're a part of the project, deal!"

Changezi hands-over to Salman the print versions of both books.

THE OFFICE OF SALMAN PASHA IN KARACHI

Salman picks up the book, "My Sex Life in Paris" by Saira Mir. He begins reading it… It's the story of a swinger couple in Paris whose sex story had knocked the secrets of a political dynasty…

IT'S OUTSIDE A LIBERTINE CLUB IN PARIS. IT'S CHRIS & MANU.
A young and attractive woman is standing outside the club…

Saira Mir

She is Saira Mir, originally from Pakistan. Saira's voice is rising:

"I and Rufi lived a very liberal life in Paris - well actually a liberal sex life for more than ten years. We participated in private sex parties and exclusive clubs where partners were openly exchanged. On every 2nd or 3rd week-end we went to some club des echangistes, the swingers' clubs. The best one was Chris & Manu here on 5 Rue Saint-Bon, just off Rue de Rivoli in Paris 4th. It was in this club where first time I had the experience of having sex with other people.

I remember that I called him the man in the blue suit with whom I had sex here in this club. Later on I had sex with so many people that I thought I should write a book.
So that's how my book, 'My Sex Life in Paris' came to life."

CLUB CHRIS & MANU 5 Rue Saint-Bon, Paris 4th

Salman puts the book, "My Sex Life in Paris" back on the table.
He has finished reading it.

The other book, "Secret Sex Life of Benazir Bhutto" can be seen on his table.

SALMAN PASHA AND ROSHAN MIRZA ON SKYPE

Roshan Mirza (Rufi) is in his studio in Paris.
They're having a conversation on skype… But they're not leaning down on their computers.
Roshan is relaxing, stretching on his sofa…
Salman is standing beside the window…
And their communication through the skype is ON…

SALMAN

"Thanks for responding my e-mail. Now I want to have a direct discussion. You know we can give another boost to your story… Do you have some other evidences? I mean some video clips from these VIP sex parties where Benazir and Bilawal can be seen…"

ROSHAN MIRZA

"No, I don't have the video clips.
Actually last time in Dubai, in August 2013, I have made the arrangements to make video clips of their sex party.
This party was going to take place in their Villa-24 in Emirate Hills.
But Sherry Rehman got confused when she came to know that Omar had revealed to Saira about this sex party.
So she abruptly changed the venue.
And we missed the opportunity to film their action."

SALMAN

"In your book, you have revealed only e-mail communications.
It's much better if you could add some other evidences also."

ROSHAN MIRZA

"For anyone who might oppose to accept e-mail communications as the evidence, I have given three citations in my book.
Let me tell you just one as a major example. E-mail communications between CIA Director General David Petraeus and Paula Broadwell were leaked and their affair was revealed. And then General Petraeus had to resign. In this case, there were no photographs or videos.

Only the relevant e-mails were exposed that started an investigation by the FBI and the media.
In my book, you have the first-hand written accounts from participants in form of their e-mails.
And they're all from their circle of close friends.
Nothing comes from any adversary."

SALMAN

"Listen, I am not denying the importance of e-mails. They are important. What I mean to say is that we're planning to make a movie on this story. Video clips could be powerful elements for the movie. They would add another dimension to the story."

ROSHAN MIRZA

"Okay, let me tell you something. Go to Dubai and meet
Kevin Novichkov. He is from Russian origin, living in Dubai.
He was the class fellow and very close friend of Bilawal Bhutto.
They were together in Rashid School for Boys in Dubai.
Kevin has participated in their sex parties in Dubai and England.
He has video clips from their secret sexual world including incest.
He also wants to expose Sherry Rehman and Bilawal Bhutto.
But he is afraid to expose the video clips because he is also present in these clips. I have tried to convince him but he is not agreed so far.
You can try on your side. I am giving you his e-mail address.
Contact him and then try to meet him personally."

BILAWAL BHUTTO - KEVIN NOVICHKOV SCHOOL IN DUBAI

AIRPORT - DUBAI, UAE

Salman is coming out from the airport. He checks into his hotel, drops his bags in the room and gives a quick call to Kevin…

INSIDE A RESTAURANT IN DUBAI

From the glass windows, the view of Dubai is magnificent.
Salman Pasha and Kevin Novichkov are sitting across a table.
Kevin looks little nervous.

KEVIN BEGINS TELLING HIS STORY TO SALMAN:

KEVIN

"I am living here in Dubai with my mom Josephine Novichkov.
We're from Russian origin.
I was with Bilawal at Rashid School for Boys in Dubai from 2002 till 2006. But our friendship continued after we have finished the school. My mom, Josephine and I, we both have been nudists like Benazir's family. But we were normal nudists without any sexual practice. Listen, while I am telling you this story, I will try to use her name, Josephine, instead of calling her my mom…
so that you don't feel uncomfortable…"

SALMAN

"Don't worry for this. You can use whatever you feel like."

KEVIN

"So at school, Bilawal was caught a number of times with porn movies and magazines. He was given warning notes and Benazir had to attend a parental meeting at school to face complaints against him. Bilawal later told me that some of the porn magazines were given to him as gifts by Benazir.

We became close friends. Bilawal used to exchange adult magazines and movies with me at the school. In the beginning Benazir was not welcoming towards me. But during one parental meeting She met my mom and realized that she had already met her at one of their common friends' party.
So now she was more welcoming to me.
I started to visit their home regularly as Bilawal's friend,
the approved friend, you know."

BENAZIR'S VILLA IN DUBAI

Benazir is sunbathing naked on the back lawn…
Bilawal and Kevin are studying in the room. Benazir walks in naked and takes a look at them with a glance at their books - and slowly walks out…

KEVIN

"So now I visited their home frequently…
Many times I saw Benazir naked, sunbathing on the back lawn.
While we were studying, Benazir would normally walk in wearing very little or nothing. But I did not suspect anything unnatural about her because both families were nudists…
Quite soon my mom Josephine and Benazir became friends.
That is when I started to notice strange behaviors.
I had no idea at that time, I was getting into a strange world."

Bilawal, Kevin and two other friends are sitting on the patio.
Benazir walks in and opens her robe flashing herself to the boys…

BENAZIR

"Hi boys, I just received my massage after the sunbath.
See, how my tan is appearing?"

Then she turns around and bends over, opening her buttock cheeks with her hands displaying her pussy…

"And how my bleaching is done?"

Kevin stays silent. The other boys pass crude and dirty comments.

BILAWAL
"You look like a lady horse…"

OTHER BOY
"Will you give us a ride?"

KEVIN
"Many times, Bilawal would take me to the back window of her mom's room and encourage me to see her nude playing with herself and with some sex toy. In return he wanted me to show my mom Josephine. I had told Bilawal that we were nudists.
So he expected me return the favor by providing him a chance to peep on my mom. I was reluctant to do this."

Bilawal and Kevin are peeping through the back window of Benazir's room. Benazir is seen naked, sexually playing with herself - and then also with a sex toy… They keep on watching, then slowly walk back.

BILAWAL
"You're also nudists, right.
So when will you show me nude Josephine?"

KEVIN
"I don't know."

FROM WATCHING MOVIES
TO WATCHING THE REAL-LIFE MOVIES

BILAWAL'S ROOM

Bilawal and Kevin are watching some hard-core sex movie…

KEVIN

"At my home I was not allowed to drink or watch porn movies.
So I would go to Bilawal's home where we both would watch pornographic movies. He had the best collection.
Then one day it was our free time after exams were over.
So Bilawal took me home. He suddenly asked me a question."

BILAWAL

"What about watching some 'real sexy show' instead of this one?"

KEVIN

"What do you mean?"

BILAWAL

"But you must keep it very confidential."

Bilawal removes the curtain from a Persian mural painting, which served as a partition between Benazir's bed room and the sitting section besides it. Through this point they watch Benazir who is having sex with 3 young men… One of them is Jason Khan, Benazir's nephew.

TERRACE OF THE RESTAURANT IN DUBAI

SALMAN PASHA AND KEVIN NOVICHKOV ARE NOW ON THE TERRACE

KEVIN

"I was shocked after watching this but it was the turn in my life. After one parental meeting at the school, Josephine told me that I should avail opportunity of getting a medical exam from the private facilities that Benazir had. They had a 'private nurse' on the staff who was hired by Benazir to take care of Bilawal.
She took my blood and urine samples. I never got to see that report. But Bilawal told me that I have to be checked again.
This time the nurse performed on me some very inappropriate checks of sexual nature. Later on it was found that Benazir had both me and Josephine tested for STDs."

SALMAN (laughing)

"You were being prepared for the performance in her colosseum…"

KEVIN

"It was getting more and more wild…
Bilawal was in the habit of regularly watching his mom having sex or masturbating with sex toys. I would also watch all that with Bilawal from a hidden place. A few weeks after my medical check-up, we were watching a sex movie. I thought we were alone and we both were pleasuring ourselves when Benazir walked in…"

BILAWAL'S ROOM

Bilawal and Kevin are watching a porn movie and pleasuring with themselves at the same time…
Benazir walks in… Kevin tries to cover up and looks embarrassed. Benazir waves him to calm down and sits down with him and Bilawal. Now she is also watching the movie…
Then she looks at Kevin.

BENAZIR

"You like this movie or the 'real movie' that you have been watching before? You think, I don't know…"

Kevin does not respond. Benazir slowly holds the dicks of Kevin and Bilawal. She begins to masturbate them…
When she's finished, she gets up to leave.

BENAZIR

"These urges are beautiful. You should not be ashamed about them."

OUTSIDE KEVIN'S HOME IN DUBAI

Kevin is coming out of Benazir's villa. Then he is seen reaching outside his home…

KEVIN

"After this incident the veil of secrecy was down.
But I was little confused so I did not go back to her home for some time. But then she visited our home to see my mom."

Benazir is in the home of Kevin and his mom, Josephine.
Josephine goes to other room to finish some office work and a tele-conference… As she leaves, Benazir looks at Kevin.

BENAZIR

"Hey, what happened with you…"

Then she lowers Kevin's pants and performs fellatio on him.
While this is going on, Josephine can be heard talking on a tele-conference in the other room…
Benazir does not stay long with Kevin and lets him pull his pants back up. By the time Josephine returns, everything looks back to normal.

FULL SWINGS

OUTSIDE BENAZIR'S VILLA IN DUBAI

Kevin is seen outside Benazir's villa, going inside…

KEVIN
"The thrill of this experience got me hooked.
After that I was bold enough to visit Benazir's home again and again.
I was invited for tea."

Kevin enters the lounge. Benazir is there with Bilawal and Jason Khan, her nephew. Benazir introduces Kevin to Jason Khan.
As they finish up their tea, Bilawal and Jason get up.

BILAWAL
"We're going for a quick errand. We'll be back soon.

Bilawal and Jason leave. Benazir takes Kevin to her room."

BENAZIR'S BEDROOM

Benazir and Kevin are having sex with a full swing…
Kevin is lying down on the bed while Benazir is riding on him…

KEVIN
"This was my first encounter with her.
After that I would regularly have sex with her alone.
She taught me all the ropes and tricks…
I was not experienced and had premature ejaculations.
But after my experience with her, my confidence and stamina increased a lot. Gradually, she coaxed me into having group sex with her, along with Bilawal and Jason…"

BENAZIR'S VILLA IN DUBAI

Bilawal, Jason and Kevin are having group sex with Benazir…
At first, Bilawal and Jason are having sandwich sex with Benazir.
Then Kevin joins them… A wild scene goes on…

PRIVATE BEACH FACILITIES AT ONE OF BENAZIR'S VILLAS IN DUBAI

Benazir and Josephine (Kevin's mother) both are seen nude on this private beach.

KEVIN

"At that time, I did not know that she was also having sex with my mom, Josephine in parallel. They both found out that they were nudists. There are no open nude beaches in Dubai.
So Benazir used to invite Josephine at one of her private beach villa facilities. During such visits she coaxed my mom into having sex with her. She was enthralled by the sexual magnetism of Benazir.
She used to say to my mom that the spectrum of sex is far wide and wild. One should go beyond vanilla."

BENAZIR'S VILLA IN DUBAI

Kevin is seen entering the villa. Benazir welcomes him.

KEVIN

"After a few months I was invited to Benazir's home.
I was excited and expecting another group sex session.
But something else came up…"

BENAZIR

"Let me show you something wonderful."

She takes Kevin to the side room of the patio.
She slides open the cover from the glass partition overlooking the pool outside. Only Kevin and Benazir can see outside, but the people outside cannot see inside. Kevin looks shocked to see that besides the pool, his mother Josephine is having group sex with four men. Two of them are Bilawal and Jason. Then Benazir begins performing fellatio on Kevin while he is watching his mom, Josephine having group sex outside…

BENAZIR

"Hey, are you enjoying this scene? Isn't it wonderful?"

Now Benazir and Kevin are seen having one-on-one sex while Josephine continued having her group sex with four men…

BENAZIR'S VILLA IN DUBAI

Josephine, Kevin's mother arrives at Benazir's home.
She is welcomed by Sherry Rehman who takes her into another room. Josephine sees that Benazir is performing dirty tricks on Kevin… But Kevin is in such a position that he cannot see that his mom is seeing him. Now Sherry Rehman is performing oral on Josephine while she is seeing Benazir doing on her son…

KEVIN

"So by now we both knew about each other but did not know that the other knew about it as well.
This scheme of Benazir did not stop there."

Jason Khan, Benazir’s nephew

Bilawal Bhutto

Sherry Rehman

BENAZIR TRICKS KEVIN & JOSEPHINE INTO HER GAMES OF INCEST

BENAZIR'S HOME IN ENGLAND

Kevin enters Benazir's home in UK. He is greeted by Sherry Rehman.

KEVIN
"It was in UK when things took another turn…
I reached Benazir's home at her invitation.
I was greeted by Sherry Rehman."

Sherry has a single go with Kevin but makes sure that he does not ejaculate. While Kevin is completely aroused, she sends him upstairs where he sees Benazir performing 69 with another woman who is blind folded and under Benazir. Benazir is on top facing the front towards Kevin so he cannot see the other woman beneath Benazir. The blind folded woman keeps performing oral on Benazir in 69 position while beneath her… Benazir motions Kevin to stay silent and points him to start having sex with the woman. Kevin begins the intercourse with the woman. Then Benazir tells Kevin to have anal sex with the woman. Benazir keeps the woman pressed down while Kevin has anal sex with the woman…

When the wild action ends, Kevin is shocked to recognize his mother Josephine. The blind folded woman beneath Benazir with whom she has just coaxed him to perform both normal and anal sex is his mother, Josephine.

KEVIN
"After this Benazir asked me several times about how I felt to have incest? I had been spellbound by her. I could not resist her.
She would arrange different sort of sex games at her sex parties."

BENAZIR'S HOME

A sex part is going on… A heavy curtain is hanged in the middle of the room. The curtain has holes cut in it.
On one side of the curtain, 4 women are seen - Benazir, Sherry Rehman, Josephine and Alesia. Behind the curtain 6 young men are standing. Bilawal, Jason and Kevin are among them…
They place their cocks through the holes. Women on the other side don't know the identity of men.
The ladies in the party are performing on the men randomly, without knowing who is on the other side.
Then they start having intercourse with the anonymous people behind the curtain, through the holes…
No one appears to know who she is having sex with…
Benazir removes the curtain. And both Josephine and Kevin find out that they were together in incest.
Sherry is found to be with Bilawal, Alesia with Jason and Benazir with a black man…

KEVIN

"Later on Josephine and I started having a relationship on our own. Sometimes Benazir would come to our home and have sex with both of us. But mostly the parties were arranged at Benazir's residence either in Dubai or England. We became the best swapping couple friends with Benazir and her family.
We had lots of opportunities to travel with them and have social visits in high circles. Benazir used to move around in a different getup. People would never recognize her as 'Benazir Bhutto' but as a voluptuous woman. For her sexy getup, our group of friends used to call her Sharon Stone of Dubai."

TERACE OF THE RESTAURANT IN DUBAI

SALMAN PASHA & KEVIN NOVICHKOV ARE IN CONVERSATION:

KEVIN

"The incest circle included brothers, sisters, aunts.
We have established some sort of an exclusive 'mama love club' in Dubai. In public Bilawal would become this shy, silent boy but in private he would be piping his mom in all holes.
Benazir would frequently have group sex with me, Bilawal, Jason, George and Omar. Sometimes she would be in cowgirl position riding over Bilawal, having vaginal sex while I fucked her in the ass.
Then Jason and Omar would join.
We would switch places and use many combinations.
She had many unusual sexual practices…
Sometimes she would take two dicks inside her vagina."

SALMAN

"What about Bakhtawar, Bilawal's sister?"

KEVIN

"Once I saw Benazir with Bilawal, Bakhtawar, Jason and two other ladies all naked having bath in a Jacuzzi. I was invited to join.
When I joined, Benazir asked me to sit in the water besides her.
She started to fondle me under the water…
Bilawal and Bakhtawar were also doing some hanky-panky…
But Benazir did not tell them to stop.
Then Bilawal got out with Jason. Both of them had their erection.
When they passed near Benazir, she groped both of them, one by one.
She then completely deep-throated Bilawal's erection.
One of the ladies commented looking at Bakhtawar,
'Look Itty bee, your mom is the best cock sucker in the world.'
Itty bee is the nickname of Bakhtawar.
This type of casual sexual behavior was the norm in Benazir's home.
Cock sucking is not considered as sex in Bhutto family."

SALMAN

"Did you ever have sex with Bakhtawar?"

KEVIN

"No, though I wanted to…
Benazir used to keep her away from her sex parties.
Once Josephine, my mom was at Benazir's home.
She saw Benazir getting angry on Bilawal and Bakhtawar…
She had caught them having sex and was not happy about it.
On another occasion Benazir caught Bakhtawar performing fellatio on Bilawal. She gave them a lecture about safe sex…
And then showed Bakhtawar how to perform it properly by blowing Bilawal in front of Bakhtawar.
You know, cock sucking is not considered sex in Bhutto family."

THE QUEEN SPEAKS
IN HER SECRET SEX KINGDOM

BENAZIR'S VILLA IN DUBAI

A wild sex party is beginning… Sherry Rehman is also present.
A circular sofa in the middle is seen.
It is Benazir's famous "love sofa".
It is at some height and can rotate.
It appears to serve as a small display point.
Benazir is standing by with four young men. She looks at other guests around her and repeats one of her famous quotes…

BENZIR

*"Ladies and gentlemen
There's no feeling better in the world than having two healthy dicks sliding in and out of you and against each other inside of you.
It only gets better if you have another healthy long one down your throat at the same time."*

A female guest waves to Benazir and shouts.

FEMALE GUEST

"And what is so special about women? Tell us again."

All other guests applaud.

BENAZIR

*"You know women are better than men. One man can give pleasure to a maximum of two women at a time while a woman can give pleasure to five men or more at a time. You have seen it before.
You're going to watch it again, right here, right now."*

All the guests again applaud.
Then Bilawal shouts…

BILAWAL

"We should invite Nina Hartley and Ava Devine, the stars from the sex movies. They're also your favorite."

BENAZIR

"But in my presence you don't need them.
I am better than all of them!"

Benazir moves to the circular "love sofa" with four men.
She is having sex with all four men at the same time…

Two men penetrate their dicks inside her.
Benazir is now having two dicks inside her.
She takes the dick of the 3rd man into her mouth while the 4th man is playing with her boobs… Two more men join and Benazir holds their dicks in her hands and starts playing…

Now Benazir is engaged in a wild sexual scene with 6 men…
She is also having double penetration…
Circular love sofa is slowly rotating and all other participants are watching the scene…

Once this act is over, Benazir moves to another corner with Sherry Rehman and Jason. Josephine joins them.

BENAZIR

"Now it's time for the divine kiss of trinity*..."*

Jason is now beneath three women who are giving him the "divine kiss of trinity…"

POST SCRIPTUM

TERRACE OF THE RESTAURANT IN DUBAI

Kevin is in conversation with Salman…

KEVIN

"She was our queen controlling all activity.
She also used to give nicknames to her boys and other friends according to how they discharged.
So she used to call me 'big gun with lots of ammo.'
Jason was the 'drill machine.'
Bilawal was the 'British sten gun.'
Germaine was called the 'sniper' because he discharged at large distance. Sherry was 'geyser of love' because she squirts a lot."

STUDIO OF ROSHAN MIRZA IN PARIS

Roshan Mirza gives a call to Bader Talib, Chief of Royal Oman Police in Sultanate of Oman. Roshan Mirza is on the phone in his studio while on the other side, Bader Talib is in his office in Oman. Last year they were together at the Summer Academy Session of International Anti-Corruption Academy in Vienna.
Roshan Mirza had joined this course as a person from the media.

ROSHAN MIRZA

"Hello Bader, it's time for you to move, get in touch with Dubai, if you really care… I have sent you the info about all the evidences.
I told you where all the material IS, photographs, video clips, everything! If you cannot do something for whatever reason, then I have only one option… I will go to the media and expose that Dubai authorities, despite of knowing about this great debauchery happening in Dubai, don't want to take any action. WHY? This can damage the reputation of Dubai. But if you can make them take action, they should be thankful to you for this report."

BADER TALIB

"Listen, I know Dubai Police Chief personally.
I will speak to him and see if he can take the action.
Otherwise you move ahead the way you want.
I support your conviction."

ROSHAN MIRZA

"Here is my point.
I might remain silent about these people and whatever their behind-the-scene activity is, if they were doing something good for their nation, for the people under their rule…
But they're just involved in multimillion dollar corruption.
That's what really makes me angry.
And that's where our anti-corruption coalitions should contribute."

BADER TALIB

"Are you also coming to Dubai?"

ROSHAN MIRZA

"Yes, my colleague is already there as part of this mission."

TERRACE OF THE RESTAURANT IN DUBAI

SALMAN PASHA AND KEVIN NOVICHKOV ON THE TERRACE

KEVIN

Now Bakhtawar is also frequently participating in sex parties.
Bilawal is a bisexual. When he's banging Bakhtawar in sex parties, Omar is pegging him in the ass.

SALMAN

"Your story is the story of the century.
You have the video clips from these sex parties.
Why don't you give me some copies?
It will make our work complete."

KEVIN

"Yes, I have the video clips.
But I am also present in these clips.
They were made either at my house or Benazir's villa.
If I expose them, I am also exposed.
And Dubai has very strict laws against incest.
Our lives will be completely ruined.
I want to expose Sherry and Bilawal.
But I must find a way to keep my identity secret."

OUTSIDE KEVIN'S HOME IN DUBAI

Four cars reach outside Kevin's home.
Three plainclothes men rings the door-bell.
Josephine, Kevin's mother opens the door.
These men show her some official paper.
Josephine lets them in.
Outside in a car, Bader Talib is sitting with another man who looks like some high official.

BACK TO THE TERRACE OF THE RESTAURENT

Salman and Kevin are seen at the terrace… Roshan Mirza appears at the entrance and joins them. Kevin looks surprised.

KEVIN

"YOU, here in Dubai… When did you come?"

ROSHAN MIRZA

"I arrived this morning."

SALMAN

"Our friend is holding video clips.
But first he wants to find a sure way to keep his identity secret."

ROSHAN MIRZA

"There's a law of nature. Nothing remains secret forever.
I also lived a libertine sex life with Saira, though it was not dark like you had in your circles. But it was exposed.
And then our story knocked the darkest secrets of Benazir's dynasty where you have been a part yourself.
And today you are here, speaking the truth."

While Kevin is listening carefully, his cell phone rings.
He answers and goes aside.
He listens and suddenly looks worried and confused.
He starts walking left and right…

KEVIN (on the phone)

"When did it happen?
And you… Are you okay?
Sure?
Anyway, I am coming home…"

Kevin turns back to Roshan and Salman.

KEVIN

"This was my mom. There's a big trouble.
Police raided my house. They have taken all my private videos and photographs. The video clips we were talking about are not with me anymore. Now Dubai police have them.
Oh my God. Nothing like this ever happened before… Why now?"

ROSHAN MIRZA

"There's a way and the time for everything.
Time for this was NOW."

KEVIN (shouting)

"Shut up. It's our life here. It's over now.
I don't know, they will put us in jail or hang us…"

ROSHAN

"Perhaps they will not take any action against you."

KEVIN

"How can you say that?"

ROSHAN MIRZA

"I can't say for sure, right now.
But if you cooperate with them and testify - that is in case if it is really required. It is possible that you're asked just to leave the country silently. You have the British nationality.
So you can go to UK."

EXAMPLES FROM THE HISTORY

WAS BHUTTO FAMILY INFLUENCED BY THE EROTIC CULTURE OF ANCIENT ROYAL DYNASTIES?

Roman Emperors: Theodora, Caligula, Agrippina, Nero
In the history we had examples of Roman emperor Nero who was into incest with his mother Agrippina. Earlier, his maternal uncle Emperor Caligula had sex with all his sisters, Drusilla, Livilla and Agrippina the Younger. So Agrippina, Nero's mother had gone through the experience of incest from her young age and moved on with this tradition. Empress Theodora was also an example who according to the scholar Procopius would order 30 slaves at a time for her sexual pleasure.

Benazir Bhutto, a "White Tigress" from the ancient times...
Was Benazir Bhutto influenced by Roman emperors?
According to the British journalist (who has been very close to Bhutto family), Benazir was known to have been enthralled by ancient Chinese and Japanese erotic cultural influences. This observation might lead to take a look at the myth of the "White Tigress" in ancient Chinese sexual tradition propagated and maintained through a long stream of consorts and female Taoists.

It is explained in a work by Hsi Lai who taught and lectured throughout the world on Taoist related subjects.

WHITE TIGRESS:

Sexual Secrets of China's Female Consorts & Taoists

These practices were originally influenced by the teachings of Western Royal Mother (appearing sometime during China's mythical period prior to 2700 B.C.E) and tantric teachings stemming from India during the T'ang dynasty (618 to 905 C.E). The unique aspect of the White Tigress is the claim that women have their own unique process for acquiring the spiritual and physical goals of Taoism, namely restoring youthfulness and attaining immortality (longevity).

White Tigresses discovered that oral sex, when focused on transformational experiences, restored their bodies and health, as well as provided spiritual teachings. In terms of White Tigress teachings, it is said:

With sexual intercourse, the female creates a material child.
With oral sex, her childlike affinities are recreated.

The full meaning of this verse is very extensive, but it expressed the idea that with oral sex a female can create a brainchild, recreate her youthfulness, or form a spiritual child within herself.

In order to practice and achieve her goals a White Tigress made frequent use of what she called a "Green Dragon", selected men whom she would orally seduce for the purpose of acquiring their semen and sexual energy. The White Tigress understood that the intensity and excitement experienced through the seduction of new and unfamiliar males far exceeded the energy derived from routinely having sex with just one male. Therefore, in verse the White Tigress Manual states:

"One hurried and passionate clandestine encounter with a stranger outside the home is more beneficial than a hundred quit and relaxed engagements at home with one's mate."

Therefore, the White Tigress would orally seduce men of her choosing wherever and whenever possible in order to ensure her acquiring large quantities of semen, increase her production of saliva, make the oral activity more intense and passionate, and enhance her experiences for absorption of male sexual energy.

Within the White Tigress Manual, and in Japanese Geisha documents as well, it says:

With each act of intensely performing oral sex and congealing of semen, she increases her life span by seven days. With those experiences where she enters deep contemplation of absorbing male sexual energy, she increases her life span by twenty-eight days.

EPILOGUE

If hypothetically, we take the White Tigress teachings as an influence on Benazir Bhutto, what can make such a high-calibre woman move into incest?

Analysts and researchers will have to study the reasons behind Benazir's sexual wilderness into incest. Sociologically, incest is witnessed more among the people who're found in sexually deprived conditions or within the families living in economically very poor circumstances...

So for the high-profile people - one should look for other factors that could motivate them to go into incest. Even the erotica could not be a reason because for eroticism, they have plenty of choices around them.

If Benazir was known to have been enthralled by ancient Chinese and Japanese erotic cultural influences, following the White Tigress teachings - restoring youthfulness through absorption of male sexual energy, moving with the concept of a material child through sexual intercourse and a brainchild or a spiritual child within herself through oral sex... One can reasonably conclude that Benazir moved into incestuous relation with her son Bilawal with a belief that:

"Through the sexual intercourse, she created a material child/man. With the reverse sexual act, she was forming a spiritual child within herself. Through the sexual act, once she gave the birth to a child, and now this grown-up boy is giving her the sexual energy for creating a spiritual child within herself - and at the same time restoring her youthfulness."

One wonders if there were some teachings for drinking the blood of others for youthfulness and acquiring spiritual energy, how would these adventurers act? However, there are many people who think that politically and economically, these dynasties have been drinking the blood of their people! And what they have acquired - youth, eternity, spiritual energy or a black heaven with dark stars? That's a question remains to be answered.

BENAZIR BHUTTO'S CONFESSION

Some unusual stories about Benazir are circulating in the inside circles: A piece written by Benazir Bhutto is recently discovered. It's written very poetically and in a spiritual manner. These passages reflect clearly that Benazir was going through some very strong feelings of guilt about certain deep-rooted sins that no one ever knew except Benazir herself and some of her intimate friends.

BENAZIR TALKING TO HERSELF: THE TRUTH HURTS

In these passages, one can sense her feelings of some guilt about possible sins that she is trying to overcome...

Piece Written by Benazir:

Benazir Bhutto 3 - The truth hurts

As transcribed and typed by Benazir Bhutto through the inter-dimensional portal

Published on: 30/12/2007

Within realising that all that currently exist within this existence is ALL THERE IS, that ALL THERE IS, is what we have been, become and are as what we currently experience within ourselves and within this existence: I realised that one tends to want to, when really looking at the current situation – judge oneself for what we have done, become and currently are.

Certainly this process opens up all sorts of realizations of what we have done, become and are within ourselves and one most certainly do not particularly want to face it, because it seems so 'bad', 'wrong', 'too much to handle' – I most certainly understand the words: Truth Hurts!

Though, as I am here now, I'm looking at the words 'Truth Hurts' – in sound it's: The Truth is Heard.

I myself, am currently in the process of actually realising all that I am responsible for within this world through my own actions and words as that of me which permeated and infiltrated this existence as me – which was supporting the illusion within which we currently exist and have accepted and allowed ourselves to be as the definition of who we are.

And I must face the truth of me – the truth of me being all that I have done, become and are within this existence through 'playing my part in supporting the illusion' – I must finally stop trying to run away, hide from myself – herein also quite an interesting observation because one cannot run away or hide from oneself, because self here as who I am is always here!

I'm always with me as me as who I am here!

And the truth of self, facing self, I experienced, is tough and it is difficult and there is much one endure – because the process of taking self-responsibility for all that one has accepted and allowed takes courage, and much of it – this is certain.

I have to give me an opportunity to start over so to speak. Starting over from the perspective of giving myself a starting point within me from which I am able to start this process of finally facing my truth.

There has been a moment where I hoped that someone can or could say to me: 'It is alright, you're not a mistake, you're not a bad person, you don't have to be concerned or worried' – and then in this, giving me the courage and a 'it's okay signal' for all that I have done, become and are which will present some form of comfort from which I am able to start / begin this process – understanding from someone. Someone to be here with me…

Yet, unfortunately, this is but another method of manipulation actually I realised – the 'self-pity' and 'self-remorse' pit which one tends to want to fall into, for someone to feel sorry for you and then help you in such a way. How many experience this – falling into the pit of self-pity and self-remorse?

I realised that I would only fall into the pit of self-pity because of self-judgement of me because of fear of the truth of me as what I have been, become and are.

Fear of self's truth = self-judgment = self-pity: Which form a wound within self, wanting it to be healed by another as to so deem ourselves as not being 'so bad' and 'terrible' for what we have accepted and allowed within ourselves. But doing this – is not taking self-responsibility and there's no-one able to judge us, but ourselves.

I understand now that there's no-one able to judge me, but myself and that I really actually create what I experience within me – and therefore I, I alone, must STOP.

So, I had a look at this 'hope' of wanting to receive consolidation from another – I took a deep breath and I said: I have to do this for myself, because if I don't actually take this step for me, within me – how will I ever understand what it means to take self-responsibility for me?

So I discarded the hope of waiting and hoping and wanting another to comfort me – I had to, because this is one of the primary methods I used – allowing fear of me, then judging me, then pitying me – and so I just stopped.

The experience of having to stop is that of removing an inherent addiction within self, is what I have experienced. Because as I let go of this 'self-pity' acceptance within me – the fear of letting go become much greater, encompassing the entirety of my being, but I pushed – as though I was a pregnant woman giving birth to a child. I literally screamed, I yelled to the point where all I could hear was my own voice as I literally had to push through this fear of letting go of and releasing the addiction to the acceptance of self-pity.

There is a moment where I lost me in and as the fear, though yet even though within this momentary lostness, I was still very much aware I realised – because I just continued to push and did not stop.

It seemed never-ending for a moment also – but when it was done: I LAUGHED!

Because everything just stopped suddenly – I was empty within me, I was clear within me – I was still just here (though without the 'wanting to fall into the pit of self-pity experience). Really, everything just stopped.

The laugh was because of the absolute ridiculousness of the situation, of the experience.

Because I in this moment actually understood how 'real' an experience we're able to make of an illusion – because 'self-pity', 'fear of me' and 'self-judgment' are all but only illusions which I accepted and allowed to be me – in this definition of it being me, I made it real, which then transformed the experience I had of 'self-pity', 'fear of me' and 'self-judgment' as being real – WHEN IT IS NOT!

What I realised is illusion and what is real is when I experienced this moment of releasing the addiction of self-pity, fear of me and self-judgment – because as I pushed through it, it all disappeared and is no more here – though what I experienced as me when everything stopped: This is 'real' – where nothing exists but me.

And here I discovered the gift of self-forgiveness.

Self-forgiveness assists and supports me to not accept and allow me to judge me.
I experience self-forgiveness as a statement of me, of who I am and it's quite an exhilarating experience because I am finally giving me the opportunity to take self-responsibility for me.

One tends to fall into the trap of self-judgment so easily because we in some way believe / think we deserve this experience we're currently having of ourselves within ourselves within this existence as ourselves because of what we've done, become and are: I could not believe that I myself actually bought into the belief within me that I deserve what I'm experiencing within me!

But I served what I experienced within me to myself - in accepting and allowing me to judge me – I am trapped into the cycle of the illusion, which I then experience as me, as actually being real and then I have to go through such an experience as what I have just shared, to understand and realise that that which I defined as me of the illusion is not who I am, but I made it real through making it part of me by allowing and accepting me to participate in it.

So I've realised that when I apply self-forgiveness: I in this moment make a statement of me as to not accept and allow me to participate in the illusion – distinguish for myself what is illusion and from here stand up within me and just not make it part of me by participating in it.

And so self-forgiveness assist and supports me to remain stable and clear here: Me with Me – and whenever I notice / find an connection of illusion within me: I apply self-forgiveness immediately.

And so, through applying self-forgiveness I ensure that I do not accept and allow me to participate in the illusion / make it part of me – but in the moment of applying self-forgiveness make a statement for me of who I am.

Oh and how I have found that in moment's where I so almost just want to allow the illusion within me, so as to not have to apply self-forgiveness, stand up within me and take self-responsibility for me because it seems so much easier and simpler to 'just allow it' or to 'just let it pass' than having to apply the self-discipline to stop participation in the illusion in such a moment.

I discovered many such moments so far within my process.

Yet the most frightening of it all is that I am so very much aware of such moments where I see the illusion within me of me and I so almost want to just not stop it, to in some way 'turn a blind eye' as though I did not see it.

But I realised I cannot do it – I cannot just allow and accept it to continue, because I am aware that I am allowing and accepting it and I am also very much aware of the consequences involved if I were to accept and allow such a moment to just 'pass by'.

So it's quite a forceful effort where you in awareness have to and must apply yourself diligently and specifically in every moment when you notice/see/realise an illusion connection within you. Because we have for so long just simply accepted and allowed the illusion to continue within us and this existence = which we are no longer able to use and excuse.

I enjoy self-forgiveness.

And I particularly enjoy when I catch such moments where I've almost wanted to 'just let it go' / 'just let pass' because I know within the certainty of me that I am just not able to allow and accept it to continue within me – and so I will stop participation in the illusion in every moment: Because this is actually me taking self-responsibility for me.

Being alone with me, realising my self-responsibility towards me is really assisting and supporting me within this process – because I have no 'relationship connection' to anything or anyone: I am here with me as me.

There is nothing and no-one I fear losing, because I within me as me have realised and understood that I am not able to actually really lose me – I am always with me, myself here.

Thus, in not fearing to lose anyone or anything – I experience a freedom within me, within this process, within which I will push and force me to whatever lengths necessary in every moment to not accept or allow the illusion, and I would suggest for you to consider the same.

Because then you will move you, no matter what.
Then you will direct you no matter what.
Then you will force you and push you no matter what.
The freedom of self-responsibility.
This is my experience of me currently within this process.

"So you have been watching this story with us.
This is certainly one of the greatest stories of this century.
In the last century, Lord Mountbatten and some other behind-the-scene players artificially created some clans and turned them into elites. These elites were promised to have the opportunity of ruling in the sub-continent.
For so long they have been our rulers…
You have seen the glimpses from their lives.
Did you ever imagine that behind the closed doors of this elite, there would be such a strange kingdom?"
